IMPORTANT – THIS IS NOT A TAX BILL. Do not multiply the new assessment by the 2022 Grand List mill rate, a new mill rate for the 2023 Grand List may be established by the Court of Common Council in May.

If you are not in agreement with the valuation of your property, here are the steps to follow:

Pursuant to CGS §12-111 submit an application for a hearing with the Board of Assessment Appeals, which MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN FEBRUARY 20, 2024. Postmarks are NOT considered timely filing. Hearings will be held during the month of March 2024. Applications are available at the Assessor's Office or online at www.hartfordct.gov/assessor and can be submitted by mail, in person, or to assessment@hartford.gov. Applicants will be notified in writing of the date, time, and location of your hearing. You must present evidence supporting your opinion of value. The results will be mailed to you following completion of the appeals.

If you are still not satisfied with your value after meeting with the Board of Assessment Appeals, you must appeal to Superior Court. Application to Superior Court must be made within 60 days following the date of the notice from the Board of Assessment Appeals

Sincerely,

John S. Philip, CCMA II
