Old Business

Complements were given by Commissioner Sweet Wilson by stating that the Women history month award ceremony was successfully done

New Business

Commissioner Sweet Wilson encouraged our staff person to post our minutes on the city websites monthly. Commissioner Khadija Abdul-Salaam requested that we purchased some type of name tag stating who we are and what we represent to get more exposure to gain more alliances.

A discussion was held by commissioners regarding the tea social recommended by Commissioner Tamelia Joyner. During this meeting we were deciding where would have it along with r ideas or suggestions of what the tea social purpose would be.

Commissioner Khadija Abdul Salaam everyone two day later with suggestions on what items we should have for foods.

Ideas remain on the table until the following meeting in conjunction with the tea and the name tags identifying us as Commissioners.

A motion was made by Commissioner Joyner to vote to have the tea on July 12, 2012 we all voted in favor of having the tea on the twelve of July. A motion was seconded by Commissioner Salaam.

Chairperson informed us of how the hospitals and police officers should be included in the domestic violence program in October since a new initial we be taken place with the above parties mention. This information clearly to is a part of the mayor's vision for our commission as well.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.

Respectfully yours,

Commissioners Linda Moore-Wright
