

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 28, 2011

CONTACT: Mark K. McGovern, Chief Executive Officer
860.527.7275, mcgovern@hartford.gov

IT'S 'FREEBIE NIGHT' AT HARTFORD PARKING AUTHORITY GARAGES ON MAY 5TH

HARTFORD, CT –Visit Downtown Hartford after 5:00 pm on Thursday, May 5th and participate in HPA's "Park n' Cheer" event. You'll receive FREE parking in HPA's Morgan Street, Church Street or MAT garages and $5 off every ticket for the Ringling Brothers Circus performance at 7:00 pm at the XL Center. Parkers can pick up their ticket voucher at the entrance to these three municipal owned garages.

This is HPA's fourth Freebie Day, which is designed to support Downtown Hartford businesses and activities and encourage people to enjoy what the city has to offer.

"Parking is a key element of Hartford's economic development and it is a priority of the HPA to work with key stakeholders like the XL Center to help make Hartford a better place to live, work and play," said Mark K. McGovern, Chief Executive Officer of the HPA.

The Hartford Parking Authority is responsible for creating, establishing, maintaining, and operating the City's dedicated parking facilities. For more information about Freebie Days and the current parking incentive programs, contact the Hartford Parking Authority at 860.527.7275 or visit www.hartfordparking.com.

#####