

PEDRO E. SEGARRA
MAYOR

CUPID'S CHASE 5K RUN TO TAKE PLACE SATURDAY

--- NEWS AND COMMUNITY STATEMENT---

(February 10, 2012) --- The City of Hartford on Saturday will host the Cupid's Chase 5K, prompting the closure of several Hartford streets.

Cupid's Chase is a national 5K run that takes place on the same day and same time in cities across the country. The event, sponsored by Community Options, Inc., supports the development of community-based housing and employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

As a result of the race, there will be no parking on the following streets from 7 a.m. to noon on Saturday, February 11, 2012:

Trinity Street – Entire Length

Elm Street – From Pulaski Circle to Trinity Street

Jewell Street (Park Side) – Entire Length

Ford Street – Entire Length

Asylum Avenue (North Side) – Between Garden Street and Cogswell Street

Huntington Street – From Asylum Avenue to Collins Street

Collins Street – From Huntington Street to Garden Street

Garden Street – From Collins Street to Asylum Avenue

Placards indicating No Parking will be put out today on the designated thoroughfares.

###

Contact: Andrea Comer, 860-757-9731, City of Hartford Office of Communications and New Media