HARTFORD COUNTY TO RECEIVE FEDERAL AID JANUARY RECORD SNOWFALL CONSIDERED A DISASTER

---NEWS AND COMMUNITY STATEMENT---

(March 4, 2011) --- Hartford Mayor Pedro E. Segarra issued this statement in response to Hartford County receiving funding from the Federal Emergency Management Agency:

“I am pleased to see that President Obama recognizes the severity of the January 11th snowstorm. This record snowfall put a huge strain on local resources and budgets throughout the state, including Hartford. Communities will continue to feel the effects of this storm well into the spring.”
