MAYOR

CITY OF HARTFORD TOWN COMMITTEE ELECTIONS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

--- NEWS AND COMMUNITY STATEMENT---

(March 5, 2012) --- Mayor Pedro E. Segarra today reminded Hartford residents that tomorrow is Election Day for Hartford's Town Committee members.

"Our right to vote is one of the most important privileges we have as citizens," Mayor Segarra said. "Voter participation has significant ramifications, so I encourage all registered voters to come out on Tuesday and let their voices be heard."

Tuesday, March 6, 2012 is the Election Day for town committee races in Hartford. Polls are open from 6:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. As a result of redistricting this year, many polling places have changed. For a list of polling places, click the following link: <http://votersregistrar.hartford.gov/Shared%20Documents/polling.pdf> . To determine Assembly District and polling place by street residence, click the following link: <http://votersregistrar.hartford.gov/Shared%20Documents/streetpolling.pdf>.

Town committee elections are being held in 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Assembly Districts. The role of town committee members is to select the best local, state and national candidates based on constituent concerns and priorities and to provide assistance and support to elect those candidates to office.
