SEARCH FIRM SEEKS COMMUNITY INPUT ON SELECTION OF POLICE CHIEF

--- NEWS AND COMMUNITY STATEMENT---

(March 9, 2012) --- As part of its search for a Police Chief for the City of Hartford, Strategic Policy Partnership is seeking feedback from residents on the qualities and characteristics the new Police Chief.

Additionally, the firm would like residents' input on the issues the new Chief on which the new Chief should focus. Any information provided would be kept strictly confidential, and would not be received by or accessible to any City officials or employees.

The Strategic Policy Partnership is a group of public safety and public policy experts who assist police and government agencies with policing strategy development and personnel selection. Their previous clients include the U.S. Department of Justice and the municipalities of Boston, Milwaukee, Los Angeles and Stamford. They were selected to conduct the search for a new Police Chief in January.

Residents who wish to submit their comments may do so by emailing hartford@policy-partners.com.
