HARTFORD FESTIVAL OF LIGHT ®: CHANGE IN SANTA'S SCHEDULE FOR DECEMBER

---NEWS RELEASE---

(November 18, 2010) --- This just in: Santa has a scheduling conflict. In order for him to see as many boys and girls throughout the world, Santa will condense his Hartford visit in December to the weekend of December 10-12. This is when the skating rink will be open to the public in Bushnell Park. He'll greet the children at the Pump House Gallery from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Friday the 10th and then from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on that Saturday and Sunday the 11th and 12th.

Earlier today it had been announced that Santa would be in Downtown Hartford on December 4, 11, and 18. But with so many good little boys and girls, the elves are extra busy and the jolly ol' elf himself needs to re-route his sleigh schedule.

Santa will still ride his ice sleigh down Trumbull Street to Bushnell Park and turn on the lights for the Hartford Festival of Light ® on November 26th. The change in schedule is just for December.

Santa says that he is very much looking forward to seeing everyone on November 26th and wants to be part of all the excitement with the opening weekend of the public skating rink in Bushnell Park and "wouldn't miss his visits to Hartford for the world!"
