For Immediate Release: October 5, 2010

HARTFORD POLICE ISSUE TRAFFIC ADVISORY FOR THE 2010 ING HARTFORD MARATHON SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 9, 2010

(Hartford): The Hartford Police Department would like to remind all residents, businesses and visitors in the greater Hartford area to expect traffic delays and road closures due to the 2010 ING Hartford Marathon which is scheduled for October 9, 2010. A large number of participants, supporters, and visitors will be gathering in Bushnell Park near the State Capitol Building in the early morning as the full marathon and half marathon races begin at 8:00am. The full marathon route begins in Hartford, travels into East Hartford and South Windsor and ends in Hartford.

No bicycles, rollerblades, skateboards, wagons, motorized vehicles or unregistered runners are allowed on the course during the event. Below is a listing of affected roads in Hartford and state highway exit closures. Also below is a map outlining the marathon route, a map outlining the half marathon route, and a map outlining the anticipated road closures for East Hartford. Anyone needing additional information can visit the following website: www.hartfordmarathon.com. Roads will reopen as runners pass. When possible, police will direct cross traffic during the race. Please expect detours and road closures. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation during this event.
