HARTFORD MARKS NATIONAL NIGHT OUT WITH COMMUNITY GATHERINGS

---NEWS AND COMMUNITY RELEASE---

(August 2, 2010)--- Tuesday, August 3rd is the 27th Anniversary of National Night Out. This is America's "Night Out Against Crime" --- proven, effective, and enjoyable programs that promote the spirit of our neighborhoods and the relationships built through Community Policing. While the traditional "lights on" the porch vigils still remain, activities have expanded over the years. The City of Hartford is once again proud to mark the event with several neighborhood celebrations. Most begin approximately at 5:00 p.m. in the following locations:

Lozada Park - Seyms & Center Streets

DeLucco Park - Behind 444 Albany Avenue (the "Y") located on Brook Street

Tuscan Homes "27th Annual NNO"- Located at the Pavilion of Tuscan Homes on Montville Street off Hampton Street

Parker Memorial Center/Kelvin D. Anderson Gymnasium - 2621 North Main Street

Keney Park Pond House - 323 Edgewood Street

Blue Hills Recreation Center - 9 Lebanon Street

Upper Albany Neighborhood Collaborative - Corner of Albany Avenue and Adams Streets

Asylum Hill Boys & Girls Club - 170 Sigourney Street

Hartford Areas Rally Together - Pope Park

The City of Hartford is donating bottled water to these sites. City, Police, Fire, and Emergency Services personnel will join in the fellowship.
