KEITH L. CARR SR., DEDICATION CEREMONY CELEBRATION

-----NEWS AND COMMUNITY RELEASE---

The City of Hartford and the Hartford Enterprise Zone Business Association (Hezba) will hold a dedication ceremony for the late Keith L. Carr Sr., on Friday, October 30, 2009.

The first half of the celebration begins at noon on the corner of Main Street and Albany Avenue with the unveiling of a street sign, followed by the dedication of a bus stop shelter located at the corner of Main Street and Tower Avenue. The celebration will conclude with a reception at the West Indian Social Club located at 3340 Main Street in Hartford.

Considered by many as one of Hartford's "favorite sons," Mr. Carr is remembered for his many years of public service and commitment to a variety of organizations, including: The Upper Albany Merchants Association, The Connecticut Migratory Children's Program and Chairman of the West Indian Independence Celebration Committee. His contributions were recognized by the Government of Jamaica who bestowed on him the National Award of the Order of Merit and he was well-known for his community involvement and efforts to collaborate with various ethnic organizations and groups in the Greater Hartford area.

We encourage the public to come out and participate in this most memorable event.
