STATEMENT ON PASSING OF DAN CAREY

(September 11, 2009)--- This morning, Hartford Firefighters found Hartford's Town and City Clerk Daniel Carey deceased in his South End home. Police conducted a home safety check upon the request of his staff when Mr. Carey did not show up for work this morning.

Mr. Carey, 51, has served as Town and City Clerk since January 1, 1993.

Grief counseling will be made available through Human Resources to those city employees seeking assistance.

Mayor Eddie A. Perez expressed his deep sympathy, "It is with great shock and sadness that receive this sad news of this loss of a dedicated public servant, friend, and someone we all considered family. Our sympathies go out to the Carey family. This is truly a great loss for all of those he touched through his kindness and community service. Dan was devoted to Hartford and his loss truly leaves a void in all of our hearts."
