UPDATE IN REGARDS TO THE PASSING OF MAYOR MIKE

(January 5, 2009)--- Hartford Mayor Eddie A. Perez has requested that the City flag be flown at half-staff in honor of the passing of former Mayor Mike Peters. Mayor Mike died last night after a battle with liver disease.

Also Mayor Perez will propose that Engine 15, the Firehouse on the corner of Fairfield and New Britain Avenues, be named after Mayor Peters in recognition of his outstanding public service to the City he loved so much. Prior to becoming Mayor, Mike Peters bravely served with the Hartford Fire Department for more than 22 years.

As of this writing, funeral services are still being finalized.
